

ENGLISH SPEAKERS REQUIRED FOR 30 – 31st May 2008

Who IS Medex Research....

We are an international market research organisation based in the UK specialising in medical devices and diagnostics. Every year we attend medical conferences around the world to conduct interview surveys with doctors attending these conferences. In May we will be in Madeira.

We are looking for people who are fluent in English to help interview doctors at the EURAPS Conference

When and where ...

Friday 30th to Saturday 31st May 2008
Pestana Casino Hotel, in Funchal, Madeira

What does it involve ...

Carrying out short 5-10 minute face to face interviews with doctors at the conference. All questionnaires are in English and very straightforward. Some medical knowledge is required. You must be fluent in English, aged 23 or older, well presented, hard working and outgoing.

Payment ...

5 - 7 euros per interview (depending on questionnaire's length).
It is expected that a minimum of 20 interviews can be achieved per day.

How to apply...

Please send a short CV to Departamento de Ciências da Saúde. The applicants who fulfil the requirements will be pre-selected by means of a brief interview and CV evaluation. Final selection is on the responsibility of Medex Research, UK.
